

I don't think it is neccesary to invade people's privacy unless you have a good reason, then you should be required to obtain a warrent.

I believe in the constitution of the united states.